

e-learning

The German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act

Many products in our everyday lives are produced within the framework of national, European or even non-European supply chains. The German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act (LkSG) obliges companies to fulfil due diligence obligations in their own business operations and with suppliers to prevent human rights and environmental risks and to end or minimise corresponding violations. This is intended to increase corporate responsibility in the supply chain and strengthen compliance with basic human rights standards.

Booking Number: 34212

Group of participants:
Supply Chain Due Diligence Act, supply chains, human rights, due diligence, environmental protection, globalisation, world economy

Duration: approx. 1 hour

Language:

Unit price:

€ 49,- zzgl. MwSt. | € 58,31 inkl. MwSt.

Package prices from 50 licenses on request

Learning objectives

- ✓ The reason for introducing the Act, its scope and its implications
- ✓ You will learn which human rights and environmental risks the German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act focuses on and what measures your company must take
- ✓ You will find out the consequences the law determines in the event of violations and learn how European legislation affects the German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act

Contents

- What is the German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act and why does it exist?
- Who does the German Supply Chain Due Diligence apply to?
- What is the German Supply Chain Due Diligence intended to protect?
- What measures must our company take?
- Who monitors compliance and what are the consequences in the event of violations?
- Outlook and European classification
- The due diligence obligations in detail
- The German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act in practice
- Podcast Human rights violations? - Not in this company

Information on the web

www.haufe-akademie.de/34212

Let us advise you

Tel. +49 761 595339-10 • digitales-lernen@haufe-akademie.de