

From team member to team leader

Successfully transitioning into your new role

As you transition into a new managerial position, you will be confronted by a number of new challenges and tasks. In order to be effective in the new job, you will need to develop a series of key leadership skills. You will also have to manage the shift in your new relationship with your colleagues. This means rebalancing staff and the professional aspects without damaging the relationships you have built. It is also vitally important to motivate people and demonstrate that you are interested in their success and will take care of them.

Instructor

Dr. Peter Belker

Im Zentrum meiner Arbeit steht die Integration von Mensch und Wirtschaftlichkeit: nachhaltige Leistungsfähigkeit entsteht dort, wo persönliche Entwicklung und unternehmerische Konsequenz zusammenkommen.

Als promovierter Betriebswirt mit soziologischem Schwerpunkt habe ich zum Thema Change Management geforscht und in zahlreichen internationalen

Transformationsprojekten als Trainer und Projektmanager gearbeitet. Meine internationale Laufbahn führte mich nach Madrid, wo ich eine Beratung leitete, sowie nach London und Übersee. Seit über 20 Jahren begleite ich Führungskräfte in ihrer Entwicklung als Coach, Moderator und Trainer.

Bill Cole

I spent 30 years of my working life in the British Army which obviously influences my perception of leadership, communication and empowerment. Perhaps my experience gives a fresh perspective to participants attending my leadership courses as I tend to have a non-Corporate way of viewing work life. It is very important to me that I promote a enjoyable, secure environment on trainings so participants feel safe to share experiences for the benefit of everybody. My top priority is that participants leave my courses feeling refreshed and confident knowing they have new skills and ideas to significantly enhance their leadership journey.
